Tutors & Tutor Trainees

Multiple casual positions available in Adelaide

The Australian Girls Choir is looking for enthusiastic and motivated Choral/Singing Teachers and Tutor Trainees to join our dynamic Adelaide team!

The Australian Girls Choir (AGC) is in its 33rd year as the country's leading performing arts organisation for girls with over 5500 choristers training in Adelaide, Brisbane, Melbourne, Perth and Sydney. We are currently seeking additional inspiring and dynamic Tutors and Tutor Trainees to join our teaching teams in venues across Adelaide.

Tutor positions are suitable for music teachers who have broad Performing Arts skills and interest in teaching a curriculum that is more 'music theatre' than 'traditional choral'. Our innovative approach and professional standards of performance require staff members who are energetic, spontaneous and flexible. Our repertoire ranges from early music to contemporary popular with performances usually including theatrical elements. Tutor applicants must have relevant performing arts experience and/or education qualifications.

Tutor Trainee applicants do not require teaching experience as they will be mentored by an AGC Tutor, with the aim of gaining a tutoring position with the AGC after training has been completed. Excellent presentation, well-developed communication and interpersonal skills are essential for both roles, along with an interest and love of engaging children.

As classes are extra-curricular many of our casual staff members study or hold full-time positions outside the AGC. Many of our tutors find that working with the AGC provides them with an opportunity to collaborate with a dynamic team of teaching professionals; it complements their performance practice and contributes to their sense of personal achievement.

Opportunities exist at multiple venues including Glenelg and Glen Osmond. Requiring occasional extra weekend work, all positions will commence immediately, with the pay rate discussed at interview.

We're an innovative, collaborative and dynamic workplace, where a shared interest for the performing arts brings together many people from a variety of backgrounds with unique skills.

Facilitating individual growth with ongoing training and development, we know that people (you!) are important drivers of our success. As such we strive to connect, inspire and support every staff member, which is why we have many long standing employees of more than 10 years.

ASPAs embodies passion, enthusiasm, dedication and energy. We work hard but have a lot of fun too!

With some important dates approaching, we are eager to appoint the successful applicant, so will be reviewing applicants on receipt. If you have a passion for the arts, and can't wait to bring your enthusiasm, energy and flair to our team, send your one page expression of interest and resume (in one document) to Sally Gawley at hr@aspagroup.com.au by Friday 6 October 2017.
